JOHNNY KILBANE SIDESTEPS BATTLE WITH THE KAYO KING

Johnny Kilbane has run out of his match with George Chaney, that was to have decided the feather-weight championship of the world on

"Hen" Bletzer, who manages Chaney, wanted to complete the final arrangement with Johnny Kilbane, when to his astonishment Jimmy Dunn, the manager of the Cleveland fighter, said that Kilbane was "not going through with the match."

Dunn, the manager of Kilbane, has long been regarded as one of the squarest men in the ring game. He took Kilbane for almost a novice and has carried him to a world's championship. "I don't like the idea of Henry Eletzer, the man who manages Chaney, and Sammy Harris, the manager of Kid Williams, the bantam champion, being mixed up in both the fight and one of the fighters," says Dunn.

Showing of G. W. U. Athletes at Initial Trials Boosts Sports in General.

INDOOR MEET ASSURED

By JOHN A. DUGAN.

The campaign for athletic activities at George Washington University took a big boost last night when nineteen track athletes reported to Prof. Leslie Cleveland McNemar, secretary of faculty committee on students activities, for the initial indoor work at the Young Men's Christian Association gym.
At a big mass meeting held at the university on the night of January 26 for the purpose of renewing football as one of the university's sports, 500 students pledged themselves to sub-scribe a nominal sum for the better-ment of sports in general.

At this meeting Prof. McNemar made t clear that if the students did not urn out for the track trial for the big indoor meet to be held at Convention Hall on Saturday night, March 4, that all school athletics such as basket-ball, track and football would be disbanded. The interest shown by the students at the initial work-out last night surpassed all expectations and the success of the track meet is now assured.

cess of the track meet is now.
As football and other sports hung on
